

California Council on Gerontology and Geriatrics

POLICY FORUM

Aging Policies in Crisis: Challenges Facing California's Diverse Older Population

Friday, February 26th, 2010

10:00 am – 12:00 pm

American River College

Banquet Rooms

How will California respond to the changing needs of a diverse and aging state?

How are providers responding to the challenges and opportunities of diverse communities?

How is the budget crisis impacting services?

How is the workforce responding and where are the career opportunities?

Panelists Include:

Susie Smith, Director, Insight Center for Community and Economic Development

Will Tift, Planner, Area 4 Agency on Aging

Clare Smith, Research Associate, Center for Civic Partnerships

Donna Yee, Ph.D., Asian Community Center

Janet Heath, M.A., UC Davis Health System Care Management Services

Support for the forum provided by the California Wellness Foundation